For Immediate Release - Mayor Lisa Baldelli-Hunt, City of Woonsocket

Re: Sale of old City of Woonsocket Street Signs to benefit the Milk Fund

Mayor Lisa Baldelli-Hunt has announced that the City of Woonsocket will be selling the old green and white city street signs to anyone interested for $10 per sign with the proceeds to benefit the Milk Fund. The complete list of street names will be posted on the city's website www.ci.woonsocket.ri.us and will be available for sale in Harris Hall of City Hall weekdays from 9:00am – 3:00pm. These street signs will make a great gift or decoration for anyone's home, office, or place of business, and the proceeds will help a very worthy charity.
