

Mayor Baldelli-Hunt to deliver " 100 Day" address

WOONSOCKET – In keeping with her promise made on her inauguration on December 3, 2014, Mayor Lisa Baldelli-Hunt will deliver an address marking her first 100 days in office. The event, which will be open to the public, is scheduled for in Harris Hall (within City Hall).

"As a new mayor, I thank the people of Woonsocket for being patient with me and my administration over past 100 days as we became acclimated to the inner working of City Hall and further learned about the economic challenges that we face as a City and community," said Mayor Baldelli-Hunt.

"From the time I was first elected in November 2013 until my official swearing in on December 3, 2014, there was not any formal or orderly transition from the outgoing administration. I asked the people to give me 100 days to become familiar with our many pressing issues and opportunities. I look forward to sharing my findings and thoughts with my constituents on March 13, 2014 and encourage people to attend, listen, or watch the address." Baldelli-Hunt said.
