

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 24, 2014

Press Release

From: Mayor Lisa Baldelli-Hunt

Today, Mayor Lisa Baldelli-Hunt announced the appointment of Deputy Chief Paul A. Shatraw as the next Fire Chief of the City of Woonsocket. Deputy Chief Shatraw has been a member of the Woonsocket Fire Department, starting as a private in 1986 and advancing through the ranks of a proud department. He has served in a variety of positions for the Woonsocket Fire Department and holds comprehensive training certifications in many disciplines associated with the fire fighting service.

Mayor Baldelli-Hunt stated that: "On behalf of all the residents of our city, I am honored to appoint Deputy Chief Shatraw to this most important position. He is uniquely qualified and I have every confidence that he will serve Woonsocket effectively, with distinction, as we begin to transform our community."

Very truly yours,

Lisa Baldelli-Hunt

Mayor, City of Woonsocket, Rhode Island

####END####

