

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
WOONSOCKET, RHODE ISLAND

Mayor Lisa Baldelli-Hunt

PRESS RELEASE

Mayor Congratulates ch2m Employee

Woonsocket Employee Tom Sederback
Receives Secretary of Defense Freedom Award

Friday, April 24, 2015

WOONSOCKET, RI: The Mayor wishes to congratulate a ch2m employee in Woonsocket's Wastewater Treatment Facility for receiving the Secretary of Defense Freedom Award. Tom Sederback, a Senior Chief Petty Officer in the United States Navy Reserve and a mechanic located at the Woonsocket Facility, was honored by the Department of Defense for his dedication and support of his profession.

Mayor Baldelli-Hunt praised the members of the National Guard and Reserve for what they do for their employers and their country. The Mayor stated, "I wish to congratulate Tom on the acknowledgement of his work ethic and to thank him for his service to our Country."

The City of Woonsocket and ch2m are public-private partners in the operation of our Wastewater Treatment Facility. Please see ch2m's release for further details.

###END###